Dear Parent/Carer,

Thank you to all those who completed our Ofsted style questionnaire which was sent out in July. We had over 100 responses which is fantastic. We have had a very positive response and value your comments which have been very informative in guiding us towards areas which could help the school improve further. Here is a summary of your comments about your school, the staff and your children.

"As a parent I am able to speak to the teachers or head teacher whenever I need to, which is reassuring when I have questions."

"Our child could not be happier at school and is excelling in both academic and interpersonal skills. "We believe this school is outstanding."

"Excellent support given to XXX during her operation and after care. Thank you all so much."

"I am thrilled with how much both my daughters have progressed during the year. They enjoy school and have formed close bonds with their teachers."

What you like about our School?

The presence of male teachers at primary level is encouraging for a mix of role models. We have been very pleased with N.M."

"Great school, great staff - love the varied topics covered and exciting ways to learn!"

"My child really enjoys school, I also think the new teachers at the school have made a difference."

" There is a good range of long serving teachers alongside

"The school has very strong leadership. The presence of Mr Gubbins on the playground encourages open communication."
