Segregation – with reference to the Ofsted Inspection Handbook and the Equalities Act 2010: - at present we do not segregate any pupils on grounds of race, gender, disability etc – we do however provide extra ‘catch ups’ for all ability pupils regardless of their backgrounds.

2. Statutory requirements

The equality objectives below address our duties under current equality legislation, up to and including the Equality Act 2010. They also relate to the Wigan Council procedure for recording incidents involving pupils in schools.

The access plan in Section 11 below addresses our duty under the Special Educational Needs and Disability Act (SENDA) 2001, being replaced by the Equality Act 2010.

The community cohesion plan in Section 12 below addresses our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006.

3. Community cohesion: a shared contextual statement

The following statement outlines both the data and current issues relating to ethnicity, religion/belief and socio-economic factors. In examining the school's context, it relates closely to the beginning of the SEF. It demonstrates the awareness of the governors and their community partners of how the school community compares with the wider community, both locally and nationally. It therefore forms the basis for planning the actions in Section 12 below to promote community cohesion.

- Ethnicity/culture context of the school (local and national)

Nicol Mere School is mainly white British, but we do have a small percentage of pupils from different ethnicities and cultures.

- Religion/belief context of the school (local and national)

Nicol Mere School is mainly Christian belief / none.

- Socio-economic context of the school (local and national)

Mixed socio-economic background but acorn data overall indicates less than NAV. The FSM is above average.

- Current issues affecting cohesion at school, local and national level

Recent development of local community links (rooms, gardens, people) have strengthened these. International links are made with schools, charities, through the curriculum etc and on our blogs.

Excellent cohesion at school and locally. Great deal of work gone into National and International links including curriculum awareness work. discreet topics eg multicultural and links to contrasting schools in the UK and abroad.

7. How we report on progress and impact

Pupil outcomes forms a large conclusion of the impact of equality work.

Governors discuss progress annually in the standards committee.

Evidence will also be kept of the impact of our actions to promote community cohesion, in respect of ethnicity, religion or belief and socio-economic background.

8. Equality impact assessment

We will monitor the potential impact of school practice in terms of

- ethnicity,
- religion or belief,
- socio-economic background,
- gender and gender identity,
- disability,
- sexual orientation, and
- age.

Learning outcomes, staff, parent and pupils perceptions, monitoring data for each including use of school records, acorn and raise online.

Equality objectives identified by this process should be included in the Equality plan, or in the School Improvement Plan as appropriate.

9. How we chose our equality objectives

Our equality objective-setting process has involved gathering evidence as follows:

- i. from equality impact assessments,
- ii. from school data raise online, acorn etc

- iv. School self evaluation including Ofsted.

The evidence is then analysed in order to choose objectives that will:

- iii. foster good relations between different groups in terms of
 - ethnicity,
 - religion or belief,
