

The enthusiasm of staff and pupils during world book day celebrations.

12

I would say it would have to be taking part in the inter-school football tournament. The chance to be part of a team, working together and winning, she loved it!

13. Please use the space below to make any further comments about you or your child experience at school from the first day in Pre school nursery right up until the last day she has been made to feel proud of all her achievements Thank you